

Robin Oldenstam

Partner, Head of International Arbitration

Robin Oldenstam is the head of Mannheimer Swartling's International Arbitration Practice. Between 2015-2021 he was the Swedish member of the ICC International Court of Arbitration. Between 2010-2014 he was chairing the Swedish Arbitration Association (the SAA), which is the leading association for arbitration practitioners in Sweden. Robin Oldenstam is currently a board member of the Finnish Arbitration Institute (FAI).

Robin Oldenstam is primarily active in the field of international arbitration and has acted as counsel in numerous arbitrations under the ICC, the SCC, UNCITRAL and other rules as well as in ad hoc proceedings. His experience encompasses disputes in a wide range of areas and industries including (amongst other) oil & gas, M&A, licensing, sale of goods, construction and finance.

Robin Oldenstam also has considerable experience as an arbitrator including a large number of appointments as a sole arbitrator and as chairman. He is a fellow with the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators.

Robin Oldenstam is responsible for the Swedish Bar Association's mandatory course in trial advocacy and regularly lectures on arbitration and litigation at university courses and training programs for professionals. He is the main author of Mannheimer Swartling's Concise Guide to Arbitration in Sweden as well as various articles on arbitration.

Robin Oldenstam is consistently ranked as an outstanding individual in dispute resolution in Sweden by Chambers (band 1), Legal 500, Who's Who (including Who's Who Thought Leaders in Arbitration), and others. In 2018 he gave the Clayton Utz / Sydney University International Arbitration lecture (available on YouTube), which was shortlisted by GAR as one of the best lectures that year.

Chambers Europe quotes sources saying that Robin Oldenstam is "a leading litigator" and "a magnificent arbitrator".

Who's Who Legal quotes peers saying that Robin Oldenstam is "a star" and "one of the biggest names in Sweden in arbitration both as counsel and as arbitrator".
