

2017 has proven to be another strong year for the SCC. In this year, the SCC administered 200 cases, which is the third highest caseload since the SCC was founded in 1917.

The SCC presents a more extensive statistics for 2017 compared to the years before. Among the new statistics is the gender balance in arbitrator appointment and amount in dispute.

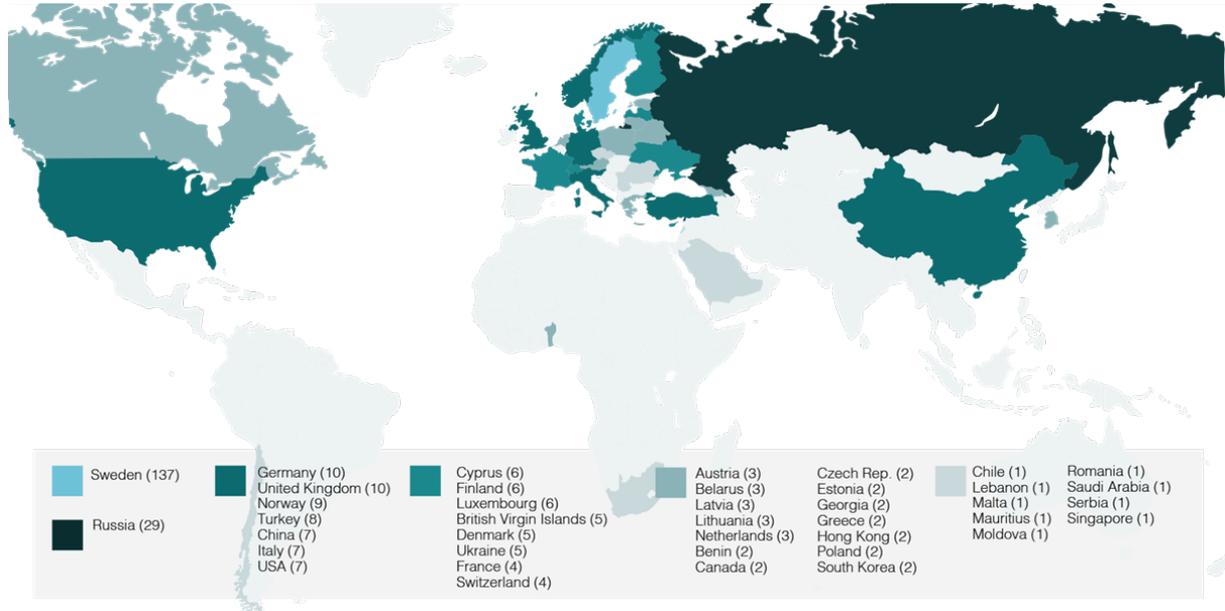

Out of the 200 cases, 48% (96) were international and 52% (104) Swedish, which clearly evidenced the strong position of the SCC as a preferred venue for dispute resolution among both the Swedish and the international business community.

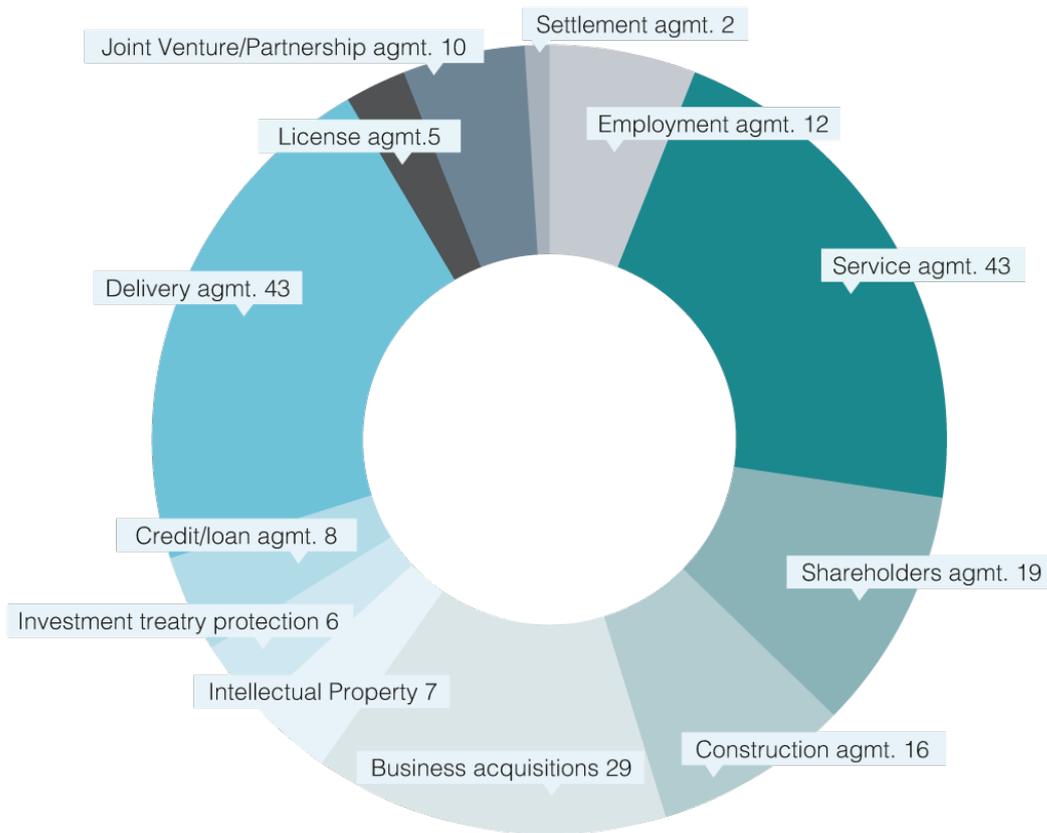

Of the 2017 caseload, 54% (108) were administered under the SCC Rules, and 36% (72) were administered under the SCC Rules for Expedited Arbitrations. The SCC also administered 3 Emergency Arbitrator proceedings.

NATIONALITY OF THE PARTIES 2017

Number of cases in which a party from a specific country appears

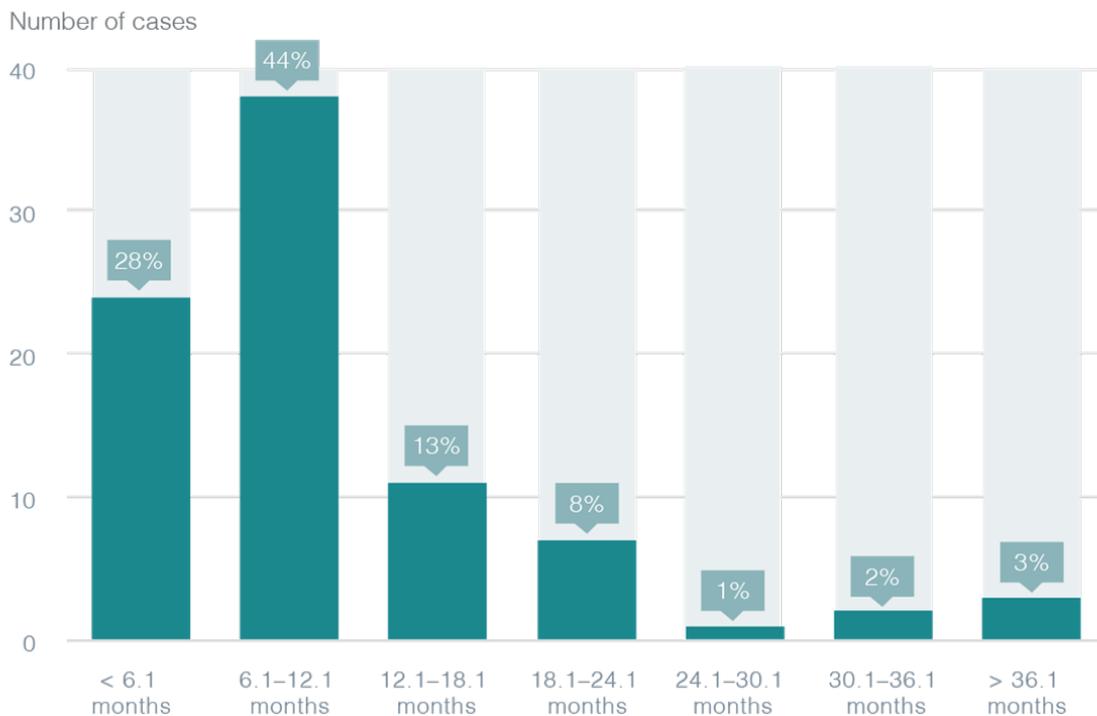

Parties from 40 different countries chose to resolve their disputes with the SCC in 2017. Swedish parties continued to appear most frequently in SCC cases. Outside Sweden, Russia, Germany, United Kingdom, Norway and Turkey were the most frequent nationalities to appear before the SCC.

The cases commenced in 2017 were disputes stemming from a wide range of contract subjects. Most frequently parties brought disputes arising out of delivery agreements, service agreements, business acquisitions, construction agreements and shareholders agreements.

TIME FOR RENDERING AWARD – ARBITRATION RULES 2017

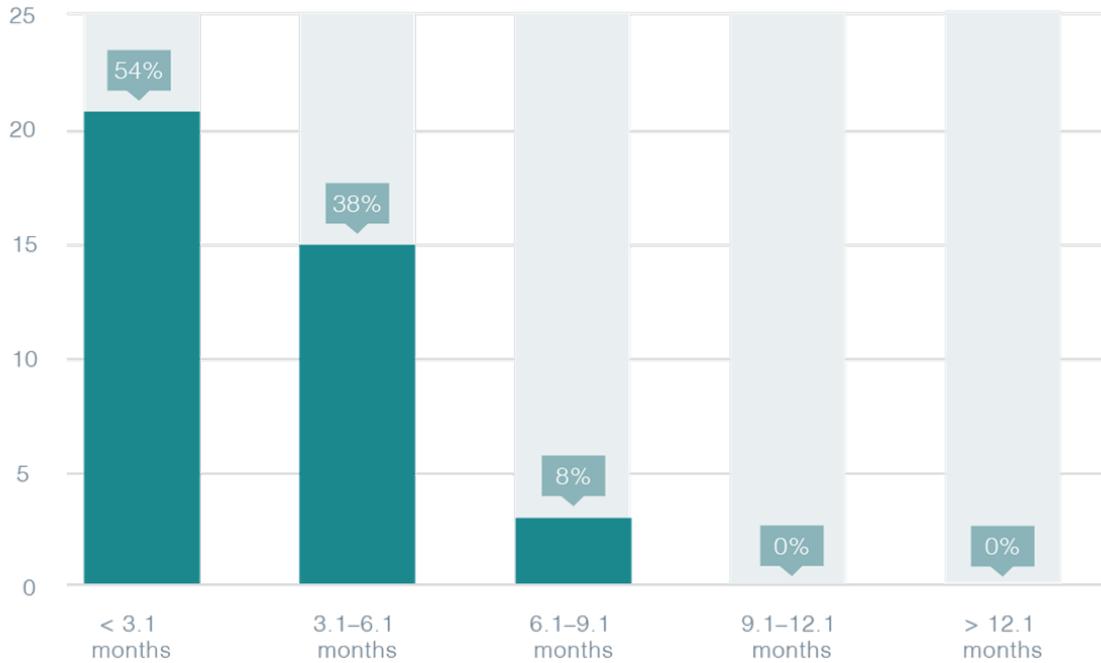

The diagram shows the time from referral of a case to the tribunal until the rendering of an award.

For the majority of awards rendered under the SCC Arbitration Rules in 2017, it took between 6-12 months from the time of referral of a case until the rendering of an award.

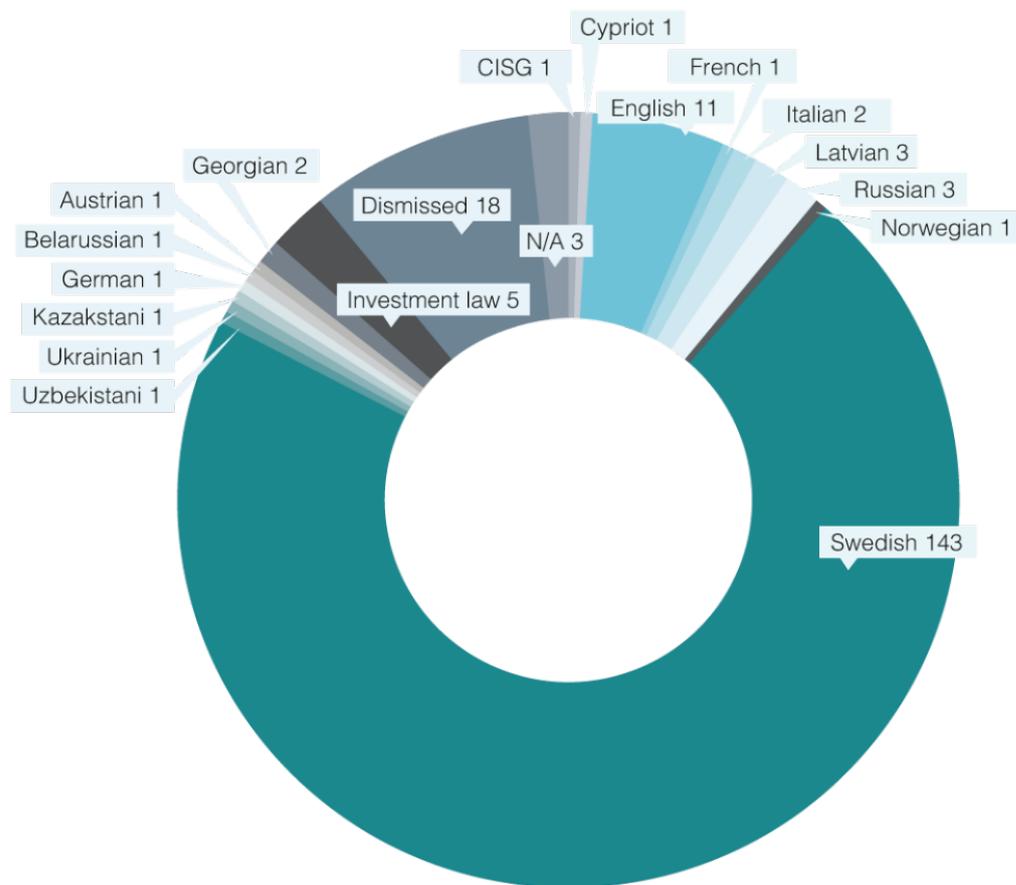

TIME FOR RENDERING AWARD – EXPEDITED RULES 2017

Number of cases

The diagram shows the time from referral of a case to the arbitrator until the rendering of an award.

More than half of the awards rendered under the SCC Rules for Expedited Arbitration in 2017 were rendered within 3 months. The vast majority of award were rendered within 6 months.

The most frequent applicable law in SCC cases commenced in 2017 was Swedish law (72%), followed by English law and Investment law.

AMOUNT IN DISPUTE 2017

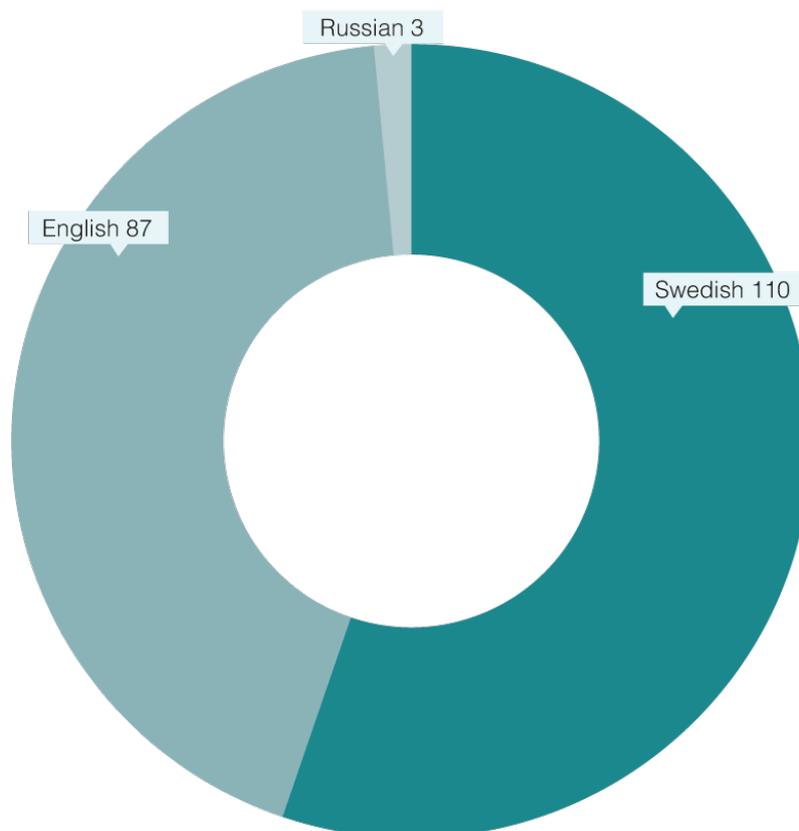

These numbers show the sum of all amounts in dispute of all cases commenced in 2017 under the Arbitration and the Expedited Rules, where the information was available.

The total amount in dispute for cases commenced in 2017 was more than EUR 1.5 billion.

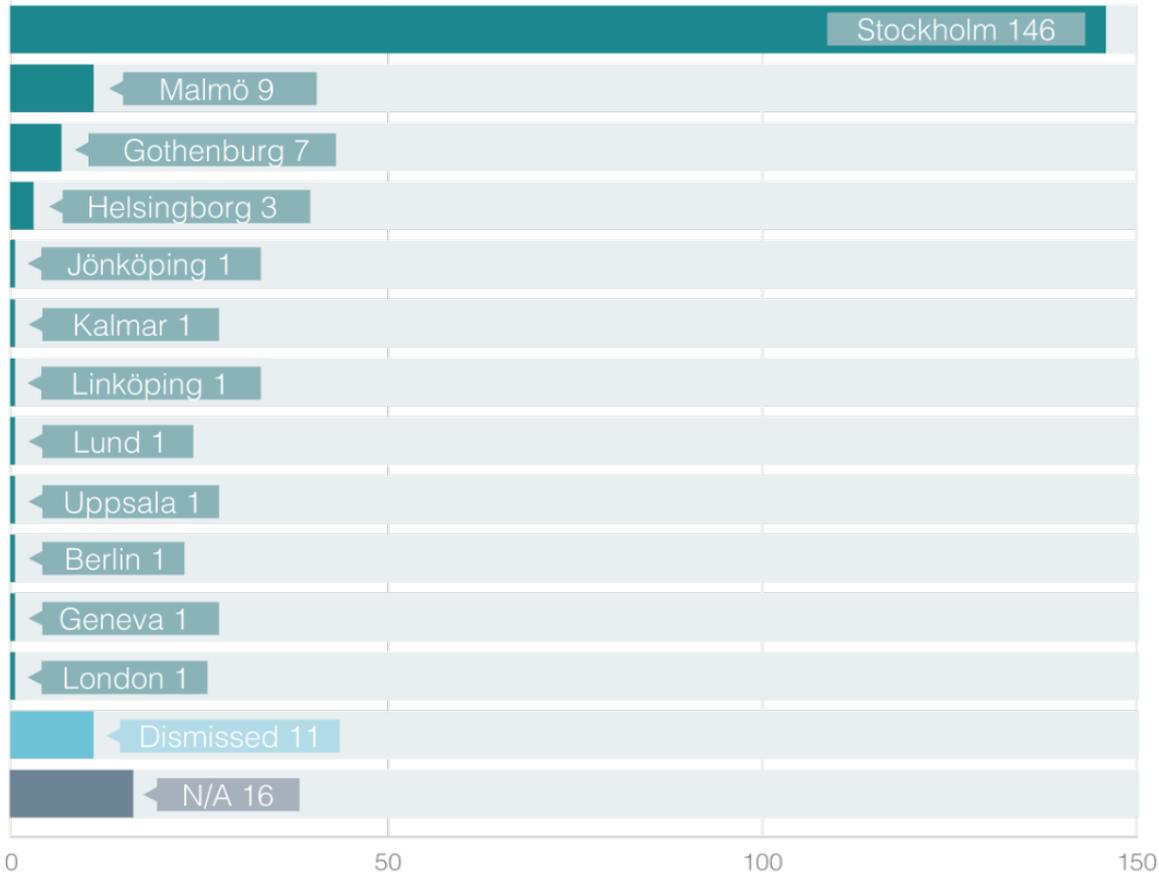

LANGUAGE OF THE ARBITRATION 2017

The diagram shows the number of cases

Other than Swedish, English and Russian were the languages that were most used in SCC cases commenced in 2017.

SEAT OF THE ARBITRATION 2017

N/A: The case is not an arbitration administered by the SCC or the case is pending but the seat has not been decided yet.

In 73% of cases commenced in 2017, Stockholm was selected as the seat of arbitration. Gothenburg and Malmö are the second most frequently-chosen seats.

SUBJECT MATTER

INVESTMENT TREATY
PROTECTION AGREEMENT

CREDIT/LOAN
AGREEMENT

SHAREHOLDERS
AGREEMENT

TOTAL

3

TIME FOR APPOINTMENT

CASES

HOURS

MEDIAN DAYS FOR EA
DECISION SINCE REFERRAL

DAYS

If a decision on interim measures is needed to provisionally ensure a party's claim, before the commencement of an arbitration, the party may apply to the SCC for the appointment of an Emergency Arbitrator in accordance with the SCC Rules.

Three emergency arbitrator proceedings were commenced at the SCC between in 2017. In all cases, the emergency arbitrator was appointed within 24 hours.

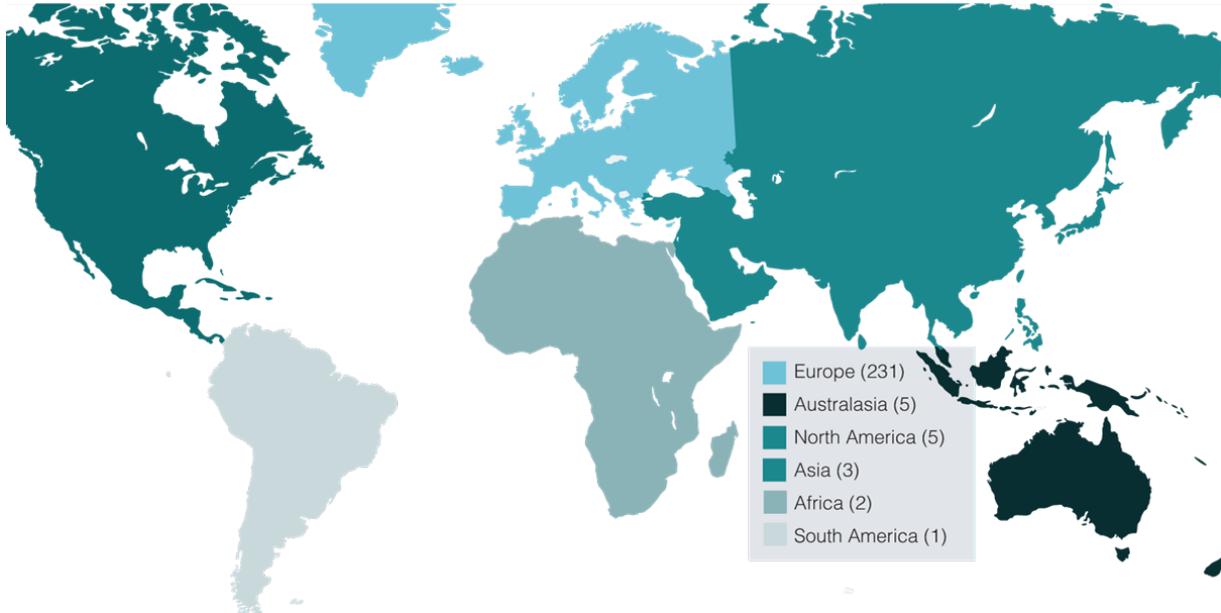

In 2017, the SCC received three requests for the appointment of an emergency arbitrator. Interim relief was granted by two of the appointed emergency arbitrators, and denied by the third.

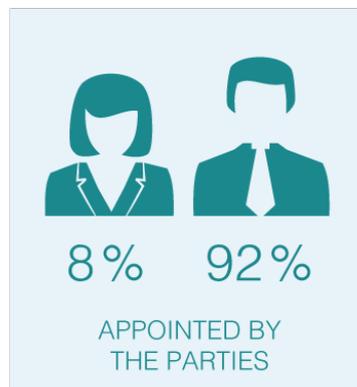

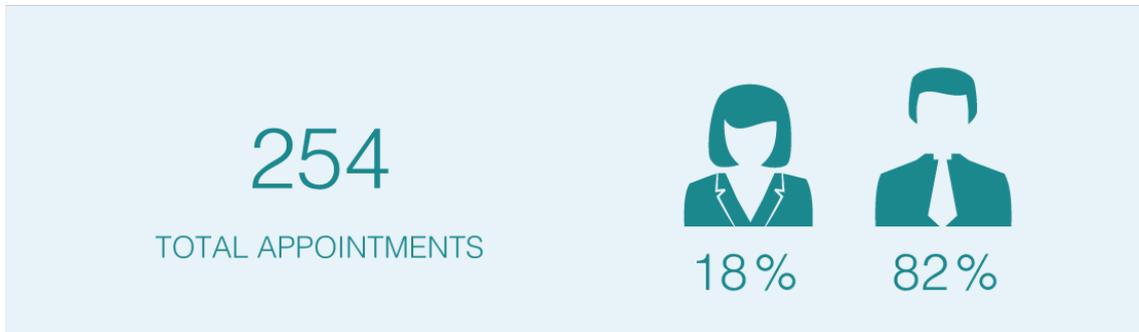

In 63% of cases commenced in 2017 under the SCC Arbitration Rules, three arbitrators were appointed. In the rest of the cases, one arbitrator was appointed.

Number of arbitrators from a specific continent

Arbitrators from Europe were appointed the most often in SCC cases commenced in 2017. However, arbitrators from Australia and Asia were also appointed.

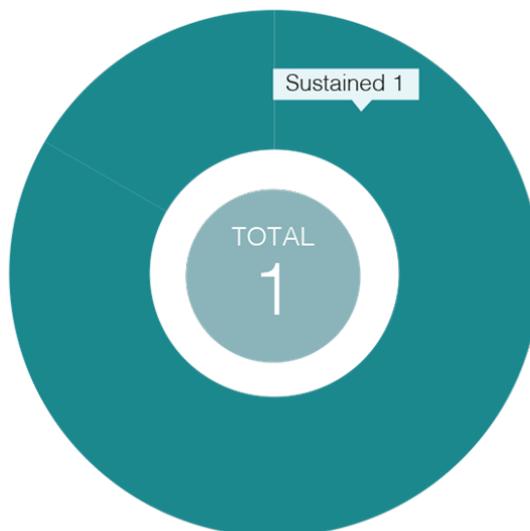

Of the total appointments of arbitrators in 2017, 18% were women. When the SCC made the appointment, women made up more than 35% of the appointments.

Challenges

Requests for release

Among the six challenges of arbitrator launched in 2017, over 80% was rejected. Meanwhile, the only request for release was sustained.